

Buddhist Terms in Chapter 24 of the Lotus Sutra

Narayana (那羅延) (p.311, L.12): It is a wrestler in a heaven that denotes might power that no one can match him. “His body had all the characteristics of the muscular body of Nayayana.” It means that the body of Wonderful-Voice Bodhisattva is like a heavenly wrestler who does not afraid any one to challenge. If you have great compassion and great virtue, you will not be afraid anything.

Patra (鉢) (P.312, L.20): a bowl. Wonderful-Voice Bodhisattva not only offered all kinds of music but also offered many jeweled bowls.